NAT11319801 Analyse and advise on restructuring, insolvency and turnaround options

Unit guide and weekly training plan 2026

This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to apply the principles and practices of insolvency law in Australia, focusing on restructuring, insolvency, and turnaround strategies. It includes understanding legal frameworks, practical applications in various scenarios, financial analysis for insolvency assessment, consideration and applicability of the Personal Property Securities Act (2009) and ethical considerations in insolvency practice.

It requires the ability to analyse, advise, determine, develop and lead restructuring, insolvency and turnaround options.

Learning material

The learning material for this unit is available on the aXcelerate learning platform.

On occasion you will be directed to source materials published on the ARITA website or further recommended reading.

There is no prescribed textbook for this unit, however, we highly recommend you obtain a copy of:

Australian Insolvency Law (5th Ed) LexisNexis
Christopher Symes
David Brown
Sulette Lombard

This book is available for online purchase on various sites and retails at approximately $170.00.

Training plan

Training on this unit is independent and self-paced for the most part. However, to make the most use of how the unit is structured, we recommend you follow the following weekly training schedule (see over):

Assessments

There are four assessment tasks to be completed in this unit of competency. In order to successfully complete the unit, students will need to obtain a “satisfactory” for each assessment task. In the event that your submission for an assessment task is deemed “not yet satisfactory” you will be provided with feedback and guidance and allowed to resubmit those aspects of the task which did not meet expectations. In this regard, please see the Effective Training, Assessment and Validation Policy and Procedure for information on reassessment and the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure for information on appealing an assessment decision. Policies are available on the ARITA website or within the aXcelerate learning platform.

Assessment Task 1

Assessment Task 1 will be available upon commencement of the unit and presents students with a real-world professional scenario in restructuring, insolvency and turnaround.

The task involves one main activity to be completed in accordance with the submission instructions.

Due date: Monday, 13 April 2026

Students can submit this task at any time prior to the due date.

Assessment Task 2

Assessment Task 2 will also be available upon commencement of the unit and follows on from Assessment Task 1.

The task involves three activities to be completed in accordance with the submission instructions.

Due date: Monday, 25 May 2026

Students can submit this task at any time prior to the due date but only after completion of Assessment Task 1.

Assessment Task 3

Assessment Task 3 will be released shortly after 25 May. This task follows on from the previous two tasks and involves the completion of three activities in accordance with the submission instructions.

Due date: Monday, 15 June 2026

Unit guide and training plan

Students can submit this task at any time prior to the due date but only after completion of Assessment Task 2.

Knowledge Assessment Task

The Knowledge Assessment Task will be available upon commencement of the unit and covers all twelve weeks of study. The task requires the completion of several short answer questions on the aXcelerate learning platform and we encourage students to complete this prior to the due date.

Due date: Monday, 15 June 2026

Students can submit this task at any time prior to the due date.
